

Bruce Shearer

Vice President, Technology

Bruce has spent the last 25+ years' in healthcare information technology, working in the insurance, provider, PBM, and employer group, sectors. He has held various Information Technology and Business Operations senior leadership roles.

In his role at PSL, Mr. Shearer leads the development and alignment of PSL's technology strategy and systems in coordination with the PSL strategic Plan. This includes evaluation and oversight of information technology systems, services, operations and activities for the organization, with a focus on enterprise-scale applications and integration of new and existing technology solutions.

Mr. Shearer also serves as the information security officer, ensuring that adequate security safeguards are in place and in compliance with HIPAA/HITECH regulations.