Joseph Scopelliti, President & CEO VNA Health System

Joseph L. Scopelliti, Jr. joined VNA Health System in Shamokin, Pennsylvania, as President and Chief Executive Officer in 1990. Scopelliti graduated with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Accounting and a Master's in Business Administration from Bloomsburg State University.

Under his direction, VNA Health System has grown to comprise six separate corporations; four entities are Medicare certified 501(c) 3 nonprofit, community-based, free-standing integrated home health and hospice organizations; an Adult Day Care; and VNA Private Duty. Collectively, the organizations serve 18 counties in Central Pennsylvania in mixed urban and rural. Scopelliti has held past positions in the banking, petroleum, hospital, and other service sectors.

Scopelliti is a Board member of numerous service organizations, including LeadingAge; Elevating Home, where he served as the Past Board Chair; Visiting Nurse Association of America's (VNAA), Board Member and Past Board Chair, where he also served as a member of the Executive, Governance, and Finance committees, and past Secretary; VNA's of the Mid-Atlantic, Board Member and Chair; and KeyHIE, a health information exchange, Board Member. Scopelliti has maintained an active membership/role on other not for profit, for profit, and governmental Boards unrelated to health care.