

Bruce Shearer Bio

Bruce Shearer is an accomplished Senior Information Systems and Business Operations Management professional, bringing over 30 years of extensive experience in technical and business leadership across both corporate and government environments. His areas of expertise include strategic planning, business process improvement, vendor management, IT governance, large-scale system migrations, budget development, contract negotiation, mergers & acquisitions, information security management, enterprise risk management, and policy formulation.

Bruce has held key leadership roles in the healthcare sector, spanning employers, insurers, pharmacy benefit management, mail-order pharmacy, long-term and post-acute care, and healthcare consulting.